Click here to access the Idaho Department of Education's Dyslexia Information website, and their Dyslexia Professional Development Guide.

About the Dyslexia Professional Development Requirement

Idaho Code 33-1811 states that no later than the beginning of the 2023-24 school year, K-5 educators (instructional staff and coaches employed by a local education agency and involved in the instruction of students in grades K-5, including those providing special education instruction) and 6-12 educators (all teachers, administrators, and school counselors with an instructional certificate in grades 6-12) must receive dyslexia professional development.

Educators have several options for meeting this requirement:

- K-5 Educators: Complete our 6 to 8-hour Understanding Dyslexia course, OR our 16-hour Keys to Beginning Reading Part A course, OR our full, 36 to 48-hour Keys to Beginning Reading course. See details on pages 2-4.
- 6-12 Educators: Complete our 6 to 8-hr Understanding Dyslexia course. See details on page 2.

About the Dyslexia Recertification Requirement

Educators holding a certificate with an expiration date after the beginning of the 2025-26 school year will be required to earn 1 or more credits of PD in Dyslexia to certify. One credit is defined as 15 hours of course work. This requirement is for all subjects (K-8), exceptional child generalist, blended early childhood/special education, administrator, and school counselor. It must be completed no later than the beginning of the 2025-26 school year.

Educators have several options for meeting this requirement:

- K-5 educators: Complete our 16 to 21-hour Keys to Beginning Reading Part A course, OR our full, 36 to 48-hour Keys to Beginning Reading course. See pages 2-4.
- 6-12 Educators: Complete our 6 to 8-hr Understanding Dyslexia course COMBINED WITH our 11 to 21-hour Key Comprehension Routine course. See details on pages 5-6.
