

Louisiana Literacy Foundations Training for Act 108

UPDATE! As of June, 2023, Keys to Literacy PD is approved by LA DOE for asynchronous online format!

Keys to Literacy (KTL) is an approved provider of Literacy Foundations Training to meet the Act 108 requirement that K-3 teachers and administrators participate in early literacy training based on the science of reading. Current teachers must begin the training no later than the start of the 2023-24 school year. KTL will work with you to develop a customized professional learning plan.

Keys to Literacy Training Information

Keys to Beginning Reading is organized into these 11 modules: reading basics, oral language, phonological awareness, phonics, fluency, vocabulary, comprehension, sentence structure, text structure, comprehension, reading assessment, and students who have reading difficulty. Educators have several options for taking the course as described below, along with the costs for each option.

Please note, the asynchronous online course option includes Keys to Early Writing PD. Topics include: Writing Basics; Engage a Community of Writers; Writing Process; Structure for the Three Types of Writing; First Steps: Drawing, Labels, Lists; Syntax, Sentences; Paragraph Writing; and Writing from Sources.
