Adolescent Reading Intervention

Live Virtual Professional Development

Why do students in grades 5-12 have difficulty with basic reading skills, and how can educators provide effective intervention?

This one-day seminar provides an overview of why some older students have difficulty with reading, and what intervention instruction should look like that meets the individual needs of students.

Virtual-Live Format: The Keys trainer will use Zoom video conferencing to deliver this training in an interactive format using features such as breakout rooms and chat.
