

Adolescent Reading Intervention

Live Virtual Professional Development

Why do students in grades 5-12 have difficulty with basic reading skills, and how can educators provide effective intervention?

This one-day seminar provides an overview of why some older students have difficulty with reading, and what intervention instruction should look like that meets the individual needs of students.

Virtual-Live Format: The Keys trainer will use Zoom video conferencing to deliver this training in an interactive format using features such as breakout rooms and chat.

Workshop Topics:

- Adolescent literacy defined, overview of the research on intervention instruction for grades 5-12
- Reading Basics: The 5 components of reading, the Simple View of reading
- Review of causes of literacy difficulty
- Overview of a screening and diagnostic assessment model for grades 5-12
- Matching students to interventions, targeted explicit instruction
- Interventions for word study, fluency
- Interventions for vocabulary and comprehension

Who Should Participate

All educators who provide intervention support and instruction to students in grades 5-12.
