

Maine Professional Learning Courses

Keys to Literacy is proud to provide these engaging, research-based module offerings to Maine educators!

Course Modules & Pricing

Keys to Beginning Reading

Our flagship IDA-accredited K-5 course covers all essential components of structured literacy, including phonological awareness, phonics, fluency, vocabulary, oral language, and comprehension.

Modules

1. Literacy Basics - 2 hours - $20
2. Oral Language - 3 hours - $30
3. Phonological & Phonemic Awareness - 2 hours - $20
4. Phonics & Advanced Word Study - 8 hours - $80
5. Fluency - 3 hours - $30
6. Vocabulary - 6 hours - $60
7. Sentence Structure - 1.5 hours - $10
8. Text Structure - 1.5 hours - $10
9. Comprehension - 9 hours - $90
10. Students with Reading Difficulties - 2 hours - $20
11. Reading Assessment - 2 hours - $20

Keys to Content Writing

Designed for grades 3-5, this course focuses on using writing as a tool to strengthen comprehension and written expression. Like KEW, this course is presented to Maine educators in two parts of 6 hours each, delivered as standalone modules.

Modules

Part A - 6 hours - $110

- Writing Basics
- Quick Writes
- Sentences & Paragraphs

Part B - 6 hours - $110

- Summary Writing
- Three Types of Writing
- Writing From Sources

Keys to Early Writing

Our K-2 writing program focuses on foundational writing skills with emphasis on the connection between reading and writing development. This course is presented to Maine educators in two parts of 6 hours each, delivered as standalone modules.

Modules

Part A - 6 hours - $110

- Writing Basics
- Writing Community
- Writing Process
- Writer's Craft and Text Structure

Part B - 6 hours - $110

- First Steps: Drawing, Labels and Lists
- Syntax, Sentences
- Paragraph Writing
- Writing from Sources

Understanding Dyslexia

This focused 6-hour course provides essential professional learning on dyslexia characteristics and effective support strategies for students with language-based learning differences.

Course - 6 hours - $110

- What is Dyslexia?
- The Reading Brain
- Dyslexia and the Five Components of Reading
- Screening for Dyslexia
- Effective Instruction for Students with Dyslexia
- Structured Literacy: Sounds
- Structured Literacy: Sound-Symbol Correspondances
- Structured Literacy: Syllable Types
- Structured Literacy: Morphemes

Asynchronous Design for On-Demand Access

All our courses and their component modules are designed for asynchronous, on-demand access:

- Participants have 24/7 access to course content for one full year after registration
- Our learning management system automatically saves progress, builds progress reports, and provides certificates upon completion
- Courses can be paused and resumed at any point
- User-friendly interface allows for easy navigation between modules

SCAN TO REGISTER

