What is Keys to Content Writing? It is a professional development course for research-based best practices for writing instruction that can be integrated into any subject and aligned to state literacy standards. Educators learn practical strategies for teaching writing skills, how to use writing to support content learning, and how to provide scaffolds to students who need support. See the course outline on the next page for content details.

What is the Hybrid-Online Model? Educators complete approximately 12 hours of online course modules and participate in 3 hours of facilitated debrief sessions. The online modules are asynchronous – users log in at any time. The debrief sessions are interspersed following a flexible schedule.

What does a facilitator do? Once you successfully complete this Certified Facilitator Training, you will be certified to facilitate the debrief sessions with educators who take Keys to Content Writing online course. The sessions provide an opportunity for educators to collaborate as you debrief activities completed during the online course, share ideas for connecting to the classroom, and answer questions about course content. You will learn how to facilitate these meetings in a face-to-face format or using Zoom virtual meetings. You will also learn coaching strategies to support teachers with implementation of the instructional practices.

What is the cost? The cost to attend the Certified Facilitator Training is $750 which includes 2 days of training, online course registration and training manual, and a Facilitator's Kit with the materials and files you will need to facilitate the debrief meetings. Please note that the registration cost for educators you train who take the online course is $210 per person (includes a copy of the training manual).
