Live Virtual Professional Development

Learn to be a facilitator for the facilitated online course!

Is your school or district interested in using in-house staff to offer facilitated online professional development for Keys to Beginning Reading? If the answer is yes, this Train-the-Facilitator is for you!

What is Keys to Beginning Reading? It is a professional development course that provides the background knowledge needed to teach all the components of beginning reading instruction, aligned with the science of reading research. See the course outline on the next page for content details.

What is the Hybrid-Online Model? Educators complete 40 hours of online course modules and participate in 11 facilitated debrief sessions (60 to 75 minutes each). The online modules are asynchronous – users log in at any time. The debrief sessions are interspersed following a flexible schedule.

What does a facilitator do? Once you successfully complete this Train-the-Facilitator training, you will be certified to facilitate the debrief sessions with educators who take the Keys to Beginning Reading online course. The sessions provide an opportunity for educators to collaborate as you debrief activities completed during the online course, share ideas for connecting to the classroom, and answer questions about course content. You will learn how to facilitate these meetings in face-to-face format or using Zoom virtual meetings.

What is the cost? The cost to attend the Train-the-Facilitator training is $1050 which includes 3 days of training, online course registration and training manual, and a Facilitator's Kit with the materials and files you will need to facilitate the debrief meetings. Please note that the registration cost for educators who take the online course is $350 per person (includes a copy of the training manual).
